SENSE OF PLACE... With the cadence of a lullaby, these three words neatly sum up the properties celebrated here. To travel well, we believe, is to soak up authenticity. And where we spend the night is part of the picture. Does the hotel incorporate—and share—the soul of its location? Are resources respected and conserved? When possible, is the food put on the table local? Does the property play a vital role in the community, sharing some of its profits with local causes, for example? ¶ These criteria

CAVE B INN AT SAGECLIFFE, Quincy, Wash.

Completed in 2005: A cliffside winery inn echoes surrounding hills in curved metal roofs, local basalt rock walls. Floor-to-ceiling guest room windows frame sunset over the Columbia River Gorge, 900 feet below. Toast with a glass of Cabernet from adjoining Cave B Estate Winery. Organic garden provisions restaurant.
