YOU WON'T HAVE TO WORK TOO HARD TO CREATE A ROMANTIC MOOD IF YOU HEAD TO WINE COUNTRY, TYPICALLY LUSH WITH ROLLING HILLS OF VINEYARDS, DOTTED HERE AND THERE BY PICTURESQUE COUNTRY BUILDINGS. A BOTTLE OF WINE, OF COURSE, IS THIS GETAWAY'S PERFECT ACCOMPANIMENT.

Cave B Inn at SageCliffe

QUINCY, WASHINGTON

344 Silica Road NW; 888.785.2283; cavebinn.com; $195-$425.

Travel time by car: 2-plus hours.

Take I-90 east to exit 143 (Silica Road); turn right onto Road U SW.

PERCHED ON THE SAGE-COVERED CLIFFS above the Columbia River, Cave B Inn at SageCliffe is a glittering architectural gem, hidden in plain sight. Opened last summer (and designed by Tom Jungig) and about six miles from I-90, the stunning inn and companion Cave B Estate Winery are a romantic, luxurious getaway—just a stone's throw from The Gorge Amphitheatre (finally, a grown-up place to stay after a concert!).

Talk about dinner and a show. At Cave B's Tendrils restaurant, you
